

Skills Ladder

Working At” Expectation Most children are expected to reach these:	Green Descriptors: Personal resonance with or reflection on the concept/belief underlying the subject matter of the enquiry. The child’s own thoughts, opinions, belief, empathy. (Personal development)	Blue Descriptors: Knowledge and understanding of the subject matter of that enquiry (substantive/ subject knowledge)	Red Descriptors Skills of evaluation, research, critical thinking in relation to the enquiry question (disciplinary knowledge)
By the end of Lower KS2	I can tell you/talk about the concept/belief e.g. belonging and start to relate this to the worldview I am studying e.g. Sanatana Dharma or Jews. I can express my own opinions and start to support them with rationales.	I can recall knowledge about the worldviews I have studied, select the knowledge that is most significant to the enquiry and start to explain its relevance and importance.	I can apply my knowledge to the enquiry question and give an answer supported by one or more elements of the knowledge gained in the enquiry from appropriate sources.
By the end of Upper KS2	I can explain how this concept/belief e.g. forgiveness resonates in my own life and can also see this might be different for other people because of their worldview. I can express my own thoughts and feelings, having reflected on them.	I can recall knowledge about worldviews and explain differences in practice and interpretation within and between worldviews.	I can weigh up evidence from different sources and consider different aspects, the diversity of different beliefs, and the knowledge learnt in the enquiry. I can express my answer supported by evidence and/or a rationale.
