

Freedom of Information Policy (statutory)

Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is either available on our website to download and print off or available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information. This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

Aims

The aim of this publication is to set out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as `classes'. The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into eight broad topic areas:

- 1. Who we are and what we do
- 2. What we spend and how we spend it
- 3. What our priorities are and how we are doing
- 4. How we make decisions
- 5. Our policies and procedures
- 6. Lists and Registers
- 7. The services we offer
- 8. Other Information

The classes will not generally include

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or other Acts of Parliament or Regulations, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information the school does not hold
- · Information that it would be impractical or resource-intensive to prepare for routine release
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

How to request information

If you require a paper version of any of the documents within the scheme, please contact the School by telephone, email, fax or letter. Contact details are set out below: office@stpauls.wokingham.sch.uk

Paying for information

Information published on our website is free. If you do not have internet services, you can access our website using a local library or an internet café. Single copies of information covered by this publication are usually provided free. If your request involves a lot of photocopying or printing, or a large postage charge, we will advise of the cost before fulfilling your request.
